Huberty Responds to Latest Curling Attack

Kingwood – Hours before the polls are set to open; Susan Curling has launched another misguided missile at the frontrunner Dan Huberty. The latest Curling claim is that Dan Huberty is touting endorsements that he does not have.

“Ms. Curling is sadly mistaken. She has held up another red herring and it smells like week old fish. She has run the nastiest campaign in anyone’s memory. She has maligned me and my family. She has misrepresented and distorted my record. She has stretched the truth beyond the breaking point,” Huberty exclaimed. “I’m fed up with it and the voters are fed up with it, too.

“Ms. Curling, I’m calling your bluff. Produce the smoking gun! I have not claimed any congressional endorsements.

“Produce my campaign mailer. And when you can’t – you are well over due for sending an apology rather than another smear.

“I’m beyond wanting an apology from you, Ms. Curling. The apology you need to offer is to the voters of House District 127. Your conduct during the last 2 months has been shameful at best, actionable at worst.

“I’m waiting, Ms. Curling,” Huberty concluded.
